Welcome To Villa Al Diwan

This is the invitation we extend to all our guests. Luxor is an old land, deeply marked by the time and the peoples who have lived here, leaving a unique legacy of art, culture and traditions .
Dip into our traditions and live our lifestyle. take advantage of a holiday in Luxor and take home an unforgettable experience.

We have built Villa Al Diwan as if we were going to live in it ourselves, following the philosophy of Hasan Fathy. In this way it is different from tourist accommodation planned as a business. Our policy assures our guests a high standard of quality, care for details, and efficient, reliable service.

We are committed to make your holiday as pleasant as possible. We aim to find the best solution to meet your needs and to realize your every expectation. We always look for "an extra something" to make your stay in Villa Al Diwan unforgettable.

Our life is about hospitality and this affects every aspect of our business. We don't have customers or clients. Its our privilege and pleasure to look after guests. We are passionate about making our guests feel special and creating a friendly environment for them.

We believe in the direct relationship between the owner and the guest. Even more important, we believe in the friendship that develops from the first contact by e-mail many months before we meet our guests in person . The direct relationship with our guests, without any tour operator or travel agent, allows us to promise you the best balance between price and quality, faster responses to your requests and reservations, and clear, reliable communications.

Without any intermediary are are free to concentrate on meeting the needs of our guests and to guarantee the maximum care of your vacation home.
